Olsen Talks On Physics Research

Dr. Leonard O. Olsen, member of the physics department of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, will address El Camino College students and instructors Dec. 11 and 12.

Dr. Olsen will discuss his research work on collision problems of atoms and molecules.

The speaker will appear at the college under a program directed by the American Association of Physics Teachers and the American Institute of Physics.

The program was instituted five years ago to stimulate interest in physics.

The physicist will give four lectures to engineering physics students and a technical seminar for physics instructors and advanced students.

A physics education seminar will also be held for all science, mathematics and engineering faculty members of the college.

Dr. Olsen will also visit laboratory sections and hold individual conferences with students and instructors.

He served as professor of physics at Case Institute of Technology for many years and is the author of a textbook on experimental physics.

Assisting the speaker in scheduling his El Camino College visit is William T. Mooney Jr., assistant director of instruction.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

The fourth National Conference on Fruit and Vegetable Bargaining Cooperatives will be held in San Francisco, on Jan. 13 to 14. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the conference will attract bargaining association leaders from all sections of the country.

Governor Sends Recognition to County AID

The chairman of the Los Angeles County state AID chapter, Edward T. Telford, was recently accorded personal recognition by Governor Edmund G. Brown when he was presented with a letter of commendation for his service on behalf of the AID-United Givers program and participating state employees.

Charles Fleishman, AID board member and chairman of GO-AID, made the presentation of the governor's letter to Telford, who is the assistant state highway engineer for District VII.

The AID chapter includes more than 15,000 state employees who are now in the process of completing their annual AID drive.

Pledges and contributions are expected to reach approximately $100,000.00 this year. Last year's contributions totaled $83,000. Telford has headed the AID drive for his fellow state employees for the past three years.

AID-United Givers is a voluntary association of givers, both corporate and individual, established to provide an efficient means of raising and distributing charitable funds.

The plan enables the givers, contributing through AID chapter membership, to make one yearly pledge to a full list of major campaigning charitable causes.

The AID program was designed to eliminate the multiplicity of charitable fund drives. Pledges from individual givers are automatically deducted in equal amounts during the course of the year.
